

Since 1999, AIRCOM Technologies has been a leading supplier of equipment and services in the field of air and gas compression and vacuum technologies. We cater to both large and small business in Ontario, Quebec and the Atlantic Provinces from our facilities in Montreal.

We are specialized in sales, service and installation of the following products :

- Compressors : Centrifugal - Rotary vane - Piston - Screw
- Compressed air treatment systems :
Dryers - Filters - Separators
- Blowers : Centrifugal - Positive Displacement - Regenerative
- Fans : Axial - Centrifugal
- Drying systems : Air knife - High speed blower
- Vacuum Pumps : Claw - Liquid Ring - Rotary vane - Screw
- Flare Systems : Enclosed - Open - Biogas - Landfill Gas

We supply replacement machines and standard or custom designed packages.

Our strength is competent staff combining technical product knowledge with a broad industrial and environmental application expertise. After sales support is assured with factory trained technicians.

AIRCOM Technologies has loyal customers in cement, primary metals, food, plastics, woodworking, pulp and paper, packaging, printing, pharmaceutical industries and more.

We mainly serve the industrial and environmental markets with :

- Customer service for parts and repairs
- Experienced technical support
- Application and project engineering
- A comprehensive parts and machine inventory
- In house or field repair service
- Packaging of units and systems

We are also active in the environmental market through supplying municipalities, landfill sites and water/waste water treatment system suppliers.

AIRCOM Technologies' combination of technical expertise and authorized distribution of world-renowned products makes us an ideal supplier for your equipment, parts and service needs.

